

Ten Commandments for keeping score

Scorekeepers shall not talk while keeping score!

Scorekeepers shall not change the side of the scoresheet of players in three leg matches...if you start a player on the left side of the scoresheet, continue their score on the left—regardless of what the bull shots are.

Scorekeepers shall not show any sign of disgust or excitement while at the scoreboard!

Scorekeepers shall not look at the shooter, STAND FACING THE BOARD!

Scorekeepers shall not lean out to see where a dart is or is going nor shall he follow the darts with body or head movement!

Scorekeepers shall not call out a score, unless the shooter asks!

Scorekeepers shall not tell a shooter what to shoot or what combination to shoot for an out!

Scorekeepers shall not change a score unless it is brought to the attention of both shooters (teams)!

Scorekeepers shall not change a score – regardless – if that player has shot again and a second score written down. An error in score MUST be corrected before he shoots again or it stands!

Scorekeepers shall not move about while keeping score, STAND STILL!
